

Reggio Study Week – March 2020 – Accommodation Option

Dear Colleague

Each year we take a UK group on a study week to Reggio Emilia. We're excited that the 2020 group will be a collaboration with the Canadian group.

We provisionally reserve rooms in Reggio Emilia hotels for our group to stay in and this year we would like to offer our Canadian colleagues the opportunity to book one of these rooms too.

We get offered a discounted room rate and booking your accommodation this way means you'll be staying with others on the Study Week.

The hotels are chosen for their facilities and location in the centre of Reggio Emilia and with easy access to the Loris Malaguzzi Centre. There is a choice of single, twin and double rooms and the booking is for 7 nights, checking in on Saturday 14 March until Saturday 21 March. If you wanted to arrive earlier or depart later, we can arrange this too, if the hotel has availability.

If you choose to stay in one of our allocated hotel rooms, we can organise mini-bus transfers from Bologna airport to our hotels. This will depend upon numbers and times of arrival and will be at an additional cost (approximately £45 per person per bus transfer). If your arrival time is different to other participants then we can book you a taxi for c. £110 each way. Closer to the time, we'll ask for your flight details so we can co-ordinate your arrival and your return transfer.

Payment for your hotel and any mini-bus or taxi transfers that you want us to arrange, will be direct to Sightlines Initiative in Pounds Sterling, via bank transfer. An invoice will be emailed to you.

Please complete and return the separate hotel booking form to me, as soon as possible, to reserve your room from our allocation. I'll then email you to confirm your booking.

Any questions you have about accommodation or transfers from Bologna airport to your hotel, please just get in touch: karen@sightlines-initiative.com
